Some men wear just what they please; others wear what other men affect. There is a certain style which most men regard as proper, and one must be independently rich, or hopelessly poor to utterly ignore the dictates of fashion. One great point about our clothing which ought to appeal to every man who would be well dressed, is that it is so well made and se entirely in accord with the right fashion without being costly.

It has all the merchant tailor's distinctiveness; is, in fact, tailor-made; but is much less expensive than the so -cailed coustom-made apparel.

Yesterday a suit against W. W. Ahana, the Chinese tallor, was filed by the plumbing firm of Gehring & Butzke, together with a lien on certain property where they did a plumbing job for Ahana and charged him $1,018.95 for it. There is still a balance of $641.45, so the firm alleges, due on the bill. They allege that Ahana refuses to pay the amount, and Ahana takes the stand that he will not pay for work which was not done, or for material which was not furnished.

Wm. Aalona Dead.

The young native who died on Tuesday afternoon at Hauula, was William Tailer Ahana Sued By Aalona. He was twenty-two years of age and was for several years in the age, and was for several years in the employ of S. C. Allen & Co. About two weeks ago deceased complained of feeling unwell, and as he appeared to grow worse, instead of better, his wife took him down to their folks' place at Hauula last Saturday. On Monday he became unconscious and was buried on the following day. Under orders from Dr. Pratt, Dr. Winslow, Government physician for the district, made a post-mortem examination and reported that pneumonia was the cause of death. Aalona's friends in Honolulu tried to persuade him to go to the hospital, but he insisted on being taken home.
